

Charges War Department Inefficient

Official of Marlin Rifle Company Says Offer of Machine Guns Rejected.

MUNITIONS DEP'T MAY BE FORMED

Revelations of Gen. Crozier Shows Need of Purchasing Body for Munitions.

WASHINGTON, DEC. 19.—Evidence that the war department deliberately ignored the danger of war and refused to take advantage of the necessity of machine guns was laid before the senate military committee by Louis E. Stoddard, vice president of the Marlin Rifle Corporation. Mr. Stoddard openly charged the ordinance with rejecting his offer to begin the making of machine guns immediately after the severance of diplomatic relations without waiting for congress to appropriate money.

The two last authorized investigations, the probing of the shipping and the I. C. C.'s remedy for the railroad ailments, probably will not get under way until tomorrow. The committee ordered to make the inquiry, however, will sit through the recess in an effort to have findings and recommendations ready to lay before congress when it reconvenes on Jan. 2. The depths to which the senate military affairs committee proposes to go to get the facts about munitions shortage was indicated today when it called to the witness stand officials of various arms manufacture concerns. It is going to go beyond the war department and reach out into the country to ascertain whether or not private industry is doing its bit in war.

The establishments of a department of munitions, patterned after similar institutions created by Great Britain and other allied nations, to supersede the present outworn system of purchasing war supplies, may be one of the committee's recommendations as result of the real tale revealed by Gen. Crozier, chief of ordinance.

The committee has practically reached the conclusion that a drastic readjustment of war department methods is necessary. "The fault isn't so much with the men in charge as with the system; 'its all wrong' was the way one member put it.

"The probe of the sugar shortage continued before the senate manufacture-sub committee, with Earl D. Babst, president American Sugar Refining Co., the so-called sugar trust, again on the stand. If the committee completes its examination of Mr. Babst today, it probably will call George Rolph, head of the sugar division of the food administration to the stand. The food administration is smarting over the snubbing administered to Herbert C. Hoover by the committee when it rejected his request to be heard Monday and sharp clashes are promised when its chief officials take the stand.

Dr. F. M. Marshall and R. H. Mills, of this city, will go to Cambridge, Thursday to attend a meeting of the directors of the Puritan Coal company.

British Guns Bring Down Hun Plane In Raid Over London

LONDON, DEC. 19.—Ten persons were killed and 70 injured by German aeroplanes that attacked London last night, it was officially announced this afternoon. The casualties outside London were slight, only 5 persons being wounded.

LONDON, DEC. 19.—One of the German aeroplanes that took part in the raid over London and the southeastern coast last night was shot down, it was announced today.

A second of the German planes is believed to have fallen into the English channel on the return flight. It was stated that an official report on casualties would be made later.

Spectacular fighting between British and German aviators marked the latest air raid over London and the south-

The death of Mrs. John Frock, aged 23, of Conesville, occurred Tuesday night at the Keenan Hospital, where she was taken about one week ago for an operation. Mrs. Frock leaves her husband and two little children, Clara, aged 3, and Glen Roy, aged 11 months.

Mrs. Frock before her marriage was Sarah Blackson. She lived her entire life in this county, having made her home in Coshocton and Conesville.

Besides the husband and two children, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blackson, of Conesville, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Goldie Richardson, and Mrs. William Bowen, of Conesville; Mrs. Lyman McCoy, of Pittsburg; and Elmer, Arthur, Robert, John, Thelma and Herbert Blackson, who make their home with their parents.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the Conesville M. E. church. The body will be brought to Coshocton for burial.

Head of American Sugar Co. Declares it has Been Next to Impossible to Move Hawaiian Products East.

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, DEC. 19.—Car shortage and freight congestion were made to bear the brunt of the blame for the sugar shortage this afternoon, Earl D. Babst, president American Sugar Co., declared to the senate subcommittee investigating the sugar shortage that it was impossible to move Hawaiian raw products to the east.

Chairman Reed and Babst engaged today in their second clash. Reed attempted by his questioning to show that Babst and Geo. M. Rolph of the sugar division of the food administration, had profited by the "arranging of prices," by the food administration. Babst avoided damaging answers to incriminating questions.

Examination of Babst over the fixing of prices for Louisiana Cane sugar by Chairman Reed was lengthy. Babst declared insistently that the American Sugar Refining Co., had been a small purchaser in the Louisiana market and had been able to take only that profit guaranteed by the sugar representatives.

Babst declared that prices of raw sugar had dropped steadily since the closing of the New York sugar exchange. Senator Reed asked him if this had not also stopped the influx of raw sugar. Babst denied it had. "Did you ever do anything to facilitate the distribution of sugar, as a member for the International sugar committee?" asked Reed.

"I did not because it was not a part of my duty," replied Babst.

DEATH CLAIMS ANTHONY HUSTON AT HOME HERE

The death of Anthony T. Huston, aged 69, occurred Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Bissonnette, on South Sixth street, with whom he had made his home since October 29. Mr. Huston was stricken with paralysis last Thursday, and this combined with bronchial pneumonia was the cause of his death.

Mr. Huston was born in Coshocton, and lived here practically his entire life. He was employed in the office at the Cassingham mines for several years. In the last few years he had worked as a member of the city street cleaning department. His wife, who was Barbara Wisenbush before her marriage, died eight years ago.

The following relatives survive: three daughters, Mrs. Ella McDonald, of North Second street, Mrs. Edward Hudson, of East Vine street, and Mrs. Bissonnette; four sons, William, of Conesville, Charles, of Springfield, Martin, of Bressville, and Frank, of this city; one brother, George, of Olathe, Kan.; and two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Rice, of Canton and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, of Mineral City.

Funeral arrangements had not been made Wednesday afternoon.

INJURES HIP IN HALL MINE

William Shearn, aged 59, 1145 Kentworth avenue, had his left hip injured, in an accident at the Hall mine early Wednesday morning. A great lot of draw slate fell on him, and had it not been for the fact that it struck two piles of coal, he would probably have been crushed.

Shearn was taken to his home in the Harlan ambulance, and Dr. F. M. Marshall was called. In addition to the injury to his hip, it is feared that internal injuries will develop.

BIG FORCE DRAFTEES TO LEAVE?

CAMP SHERMAN, DEC. 19.—Speculation was rife today over the real reason for an order from Washington, put in force by Major Gen. Glenn, curtailing the number of Christmas passes from 30 to 5 per cent of the camp's population. It was ventured by some officers that early movement of a large force from this campment was anticipated; others that it was planned to conserve coal by thus making unnecessary the operation of special trains. Under the pass order, approximately 1,500 men and officers will be given four-day Christmas leaves of absence, instead of 10,000 as had been planned. The lateness of the order, it is feared, will cause a rush of Christmas mail from home-folks who had planned on giving Christmas gifts first handed to the soldiers when they arrived home.

Early foreign service is ahead for 99 boys of the three machine gun battalions, who were transferred today to ammunition train number 308. From the 322nd battalion, Company A sent 24; Co. B, 20; Co. C, 17; D, 6 men; 323 Battalion, Co. A, 9; Co. B, 4; Co. C, 1; 324th battalion, Co. A, 1; Co. B, 13; Co. C, 4.

FORMER COSHOCTON MAN PASSES AWAY

The first intimation of the death of J. J. Murray, of Cleveland, formerly a wholesale liquor dealer in this city, was received here Wednesday morning, when the Coshocton National bank received word that his wife had been appointed administratrix of his estate. Mr. Murray wrote to the bank Dec. 1, stating that he was confined to his bed with rheumatism, and that the bank officials would hear from him soon. The notice received Wednesday was the first word they had after this letter.

Murray was in the liquor business here with Tums Eison for a number of years. He owned the Mecca hotel. About eight years ago, he went to Canton, and for the last two years he had been in the automobile business in Cleveland.

REP. BRITTEN CHARGES SECY. DANIELS FAILED TO HEED SIMS' REQUEST

Member of House Naval Investigators Hints at Scandals But Is Silenced by the Chairman.

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, DEC. 19.—Rep. Britten started the house naval investigators this afternoon by asking Secretary Daniels if he would tell the committee about complaints against navy methods made by Admiral Sims, commanding the American naval forces abroad.

"Will you furnish the committee with all the complaints that you have from Admiral Sims regarding the methods of the department in complying with his various requests?" asked Britten.

Daniels first parried the question and accused Britten of "petty gossip." Later he said: "Admiral Sims has made no complaints. He did ask for a particular officer who could not be sent to him. There is no question but that he has received every order the navy could supply."

"We should not deal with petty gossip," said Daniels first in reply to Britten. "All these things should be discussed in executive session," he added. "You do not think, then," said Britten, "that we should know of the navy department's failure to comply with Admiral Sims' requests? I hope it is not the purpose of the navy or of the committee to show only the favorable side of the navy."

"It should not have been asked in open session," said Daniels, "but since it has been I will not reply in public." He then declared that any question involving policy or naval strategy should not be asked in public. Chairman Oliver acquiesced in this view and Britten's questioning ceased.

"Is any officer either in active service or on the retired list interested in contracts or acting as an agent for contractor?" asked Rep. Littlepage.

"No, sir," replied the secretary.

"Is there any objection," asked Britten, "to your discussing the taking over of the merchant ships by the navy?"

Both Mr. Daniels and Chairman Oliver that this should be discussed in executive session.

SOLICITORS FOR THE RED CROSS MEET THURSDAY

A meeting of all solicitors in the Christmas membership drive is called for Thursday evening at 7:30 at Red Cross headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. At that time it is hoped to have a complete report of work done as well as a forecast of what may be expected by the end of the week.

The campaign for 15,000,000 new members is going with a tremendous push in all sections of the country. Chicago has an organization of 29,000 solicitors making a house to house canvass of the city. Cleveland signed approximately 39,000 members the first day of the campaign. Canton expects to go over the top tonight.

Coshocton's responsibilities in the campaign are smaller as her field is smaller but she can be counted upon to work with might and main to reach her quota of 6,000 members. Of the total 3,500 must be new.

Never in the history of the country was a campaign for the nation's welfare undertaken to be finished in so short a time. In seven working days the Red Cross expects to enroll one-tenth of the country's entire population in a vast civilian army.

If you have not already joined, let us hear from you when the collection comes, it is the plea of the solicitors locally.

Two Days Are Given Miners At Holidays

Christmas and New Years Only Vacation Sanctioned by U. M. W. of A.

HAYES, LEWIS AND GREEN SIGN EDICT

Say Custom of Week Off Must Change, Due to a Fuel Shortage.

INDIANAPOLIS, DEC. 19.—The United Mine Workers of America, in order to meet unprecedented demands for coal, will keep mines in operation during the holidays except on two days, Christmas and New Years, according to a statement issued by international headquarters here today.

The statement, signed by Frank J. Hayes, president; John L. Lewis, vice president, and Wm. Green, secretary, says: "The U. S. is in the grip of a coal famine. Recent snows and excessive cold weather have depleted the coal bins throughout the country. Never before has a coal shortage been so acute. 'In normal times it has been the custom to lay the mines idle during the week of Christmas holidays because the market for fuel could be met without working during the period but this year conditions have changed.

"Therefore, out of consideration for the public need we are calling upon the U. M. W. A. to take only two holidays, Christmas and New Years. Our patriotic duty demands that this be done."

The action of the mine workers headquarters is in line with an appeal sent out by Harry A. Garfield, federal fuel administrator.

SENATE

tion, Senator Strickland of South Dakota, introduced a resolution creating a general office manager to run the railroads. Lodge of Massachusetts urged the same treatment for the shipping board. He said it should be abolished and one man put in charge of the shipping program.

Buy him Shoes for his Christmas. D. O. Thompson sells them at the "old prices," $5.00 Shoes $3.98. The best $1.00 shoe made for $3.25. No rent to pay saves you the difference.

All persons holding bills against the Board of Education of Tuscarawas Township are requested to mail same to the Township Clerk on or before the 20th of this month.

"We've got to have a merchant man. We've had the shipping board with us for a year and we have not any ships and apparently no prospect of any," said Senator Lodge. "The system is all wrong."

Senator Cummings explained that the purpose of his resolution was to obtain information enabling congress to deal promptly with any recommendations the president might make to congress after the holidays regarding the railroads.

"I have been deeply impressed by failure of the shipping board in this great emergency," said Senator Harding in urging the step. "We have appropriated not millions but billions for shipping and yet we get no ships."

"We have witnessed the passing of Gen. Goethals, Mr. Deman, Adl. Capps. "The shipping situation is most discouraging. There is little use of providing an army unless we can transport it and sustain it across the sea. The winning of the war depends upon our strength upon the seas."

"It is a crime that the money placed in the hands of the shipping board has been so illy handled, so bound up with entanglements of red tape and inefficiency that we have succeeded in getting no ships."

"The senate cannot perform a better service than to make a thorough investigation of the matter. We are not getting the ships and it is the business of congress to find what's wrong."

XMAS PRESENTS FOR EVERY U.S. MAN IN FRANCE

WASHINGTON, DEC. 18—A Christmas present for each man in the American army in France has arrived at a European port, it was announced by the war department today. These packages have been going forward for several weeks and now all is in readiness for Gen. Pershing and his assistants to play Santa Claus for their soldiers. The number of men—likewise the number of presents—in France, is military information valuable to the enemy, but it is stated that if the presents sent to France were put end to end they would form a continuous line from Washington to New York.

Here are practical gifts at less than their real values. Neck wear in beautiful Christmas boxes, 35c, 48c, 65c, 79c, 98c, $1.25. He will like one at D. O. Thompson's.

Harris Asks Excuse From Shipping Bd.

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, DEC. 18—Navy department officials admitted today that Rear Admiral Frederick H. Harris, designated recently as chairman of the emergency fleet, captain, has applied to be relieved from duty under the shipping board. He will be transferred back to his old job as chief of the bureau of yards and docks.

Harris will be succeeded as head of the fleet corporation by Charles A. Pierce of Chicago, at present vice president of the fleet corporation. While it was admitted that friction with the shipping board has resulted in Harris' withdrawing from his new position, it also was stated officially that President Wilson is standing squarely behind Edward N. Hurley, named by him as chairman of the Federal Shipping Board.

Hurley, it was declared is doing the work in the board exactly as the president wants it done.

In explanation of Admiral Harris' demand that he be detailed from his post as head of the fleet corporation it was learned today that he and Chairman Hurley had clashed. Harris wanted to move the offices of the fleet corporation from this city, which he said was too congested to Philadelphia, where he would be close to the various yards in which the government ships are being built. Hurley overruled Harris, claiming that this was a matter which should be settled by the executive committee of the emergency corporation. There was also distinct friction between Admiral Harris and Chairman Hurley over the utilization of the emergency fund of $12,000,000 made available for quarters for workmen at the various yards and plants where vessels were being constructed for the fleet corporation.

"Right over the top," D. O. Thompson is prepared for your coming. Come early, come often. Christmas gifts for men and boys. The same for less.

BORRH AGAINST XMAS VACATION FOR CONGRESS

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, DEC. 18—Senator Borah's effort to make congress stay on the job during the holidays was defeated this afternoon when by a vote of 43 to 12 the senate rejected the motion to reconsider the resolution to recess until Jan. 3.

WASHINGTON, DEC. 18—The Senate today was confronted by the prospect of a stubborn fight to force congress to abandon the traditional two-week Xmas recess and stay on the job prepared to deal promptly with the railroad problem.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, put a motion immediately after the Senate convened to reconsider the resolution adopted yesterday for the holiday recess. He declared that it is the duty of Congress to stay in Washington ready to respond instantly to any request the President may make for action to remedy the railroad situation. There is a growing feeling in Congress that additional legislation will be absolutely necessary to clothe the President with sufficient authority to take over the railroads.

CASH IN YOUR LIBERTY BONDS

There probably is a large number of people in Coshocton county who patriotically responded to the call of their country for money to help win the war, and bought a Liberty Bond, but as their means were limited, a Fifty, or One Hundred dollar bond was purchased at that time, and now feel that they would rather have the investment in something which they can use right along, instead of the $2.00 to $4.00 yearly interest on these bonds. If so it is perfectly legitimate for you to exchange your bond for any other commodity you desire. By your purchase, you have helped your country raise the sum of money necessary to equip our boys for foreign military service, and that was the object of the bond sale, and now at Christmas time if you are short of ready cash or feel that you do not care to keep your bonds, we will exchange anything in our line of Diamonds, Watches, Silverware or other goods, and allow you the full face value of your bond, and as this is a trade transaction, we will pay you five percent extra, or in other words will allow you one dollar and five cents for each dollar, that your bond calls for, and have more than your whole year's interest in advance. Just bring your bond to Brooke's Jewelry store, and it will be accepted the same as cash on any purchase you make plus the five percent additional.

Seal Sales Today Total $80 In City

The sum of $80 has been realized thus far from the sale of Red Cross seals in the downtown stores, Saturday's sales alone amounting to $15. As the members of the Young Women's Christian Organization are selling the stickers in the factories, and no report from them will be received until Christmas, the outlook for a big sale in the city is decidedly good.

An effort is being made all over the country to stimulate the sale of the seals this year so the $2,000,000 fund which is the objective will be realized. The country's entry into the war and the consequent revelation of the prevalence of tuberculosis and the danger in which the disease has placed our army has added incentive to the campaign.

Every man, woman and child is being asked to triple the amount of their Red Cross Seal purchases this year.

Few people who buy the little messages of Christmas cheer realize that more than 1,500 anti-tuberculosis associations of the country derive their chief support from Red Cross Christmas Seals.

CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR'S HOME DAMAGED BY AN ALIEN ENEMY'S BOMB

(International News Service) SACRAMENTO, CALIF., DEC. 18.—Alien enemies are blamed for the bomb explosion that damaged the executive mansion occupied by Gov. and Mrs. W. B. Stephens last night. Police and federal officials are rounding up suspicious characters.

A score of arrests have been made. The bomb was planted against the brick wall of the mansion, in an alleyway that runs about 40 feet back from the street and directly beneath the windows of the room occupied by

Gov. and Mrs. Stephens on the second floor.

At least 20 sticks of dynamite were used, according to the police. A hole 2 feet square was torn in the brick foundation.

Henry Claussen the night watchman, said he passed the spot where the blast was set off about 5 minutes before the blast.

Gov. Stephens had just returned from Los Angeles where he had made several speeches warning the people not to be too tolerant of alien enemies. He says he had received no threats and is in the dark regarding any other possible motive.

The Rev. Franz Langford, Baptist minister living in the neighborhood gave the police, practically the only clue thus far obtained.

He says that for several months he saw a man, apparently German, lurking in the vicinity and that he has not seen him for about a week. He gave a good description of the loiterer.

BRITISH TAKE OVER A PART OF THE ITALIAN FRONT ON THE ASIAGO

(International News Service) LONDON, DEC. 18.—The task of defending the northern approaches to Monte Grappa, the chief bulwark holding up the advance of the Austro-Germans on the eastern side of the Asiago plateau in Northern Italy, has been taken over by the British and they are now fighting against the Italian invaders along the Asiago front.

Dispatches from Rome today told of the British taking over the Asiago front from the Italian army, which had been fighting there since the beginning of the year.

Reorganization Of Fleet Corporation Determined Upon

WASHINGTON, DEC. 19.—Complete reorganization of the emergency fleet corporation in charge of America's shipbuilding program was determined upon today following the resignation of Rear Admiral Frederick R. Harris, general manager of the corporation, which has been carefully checked up because of dissension with other officials of the shipping board over matters of policy.

Chairman E. N. Hurley of the board in a formal statement announced that Charles A. Piez, now a vice president of the corporation would succeed Harris as general manager, and that Rear Admiral Bowles, president of the Fore River Shipbuilding Co., would be assigned to an important place in the direction of its affairs.

James Heyworth has been put in charge of wooden ship construction, and Charles Day named manager of the production department.

"Underlying the reorganization was the desire to bring the fleet corporation closer to the ship yards," Chairman Hurley stated. "In order to expedite the actual production of ships the ground work of plans having been laid by previous managements, Chas. A. Piez, one of the most noted engineers and organizers in the country has requested me to effect a reorganization. This reorganization is nearly completed. Its success is assured by the fact that it derives its inspiration from actual conditions in ship yards of the country."

Admiral Harris, upon the retirement of Admiral Capps on Dec. 1, on account of ill health, was designated general manager. While the reorganization was in progress, he suggested to me that the emergency fleet corporation be moved to Philadelphia. I suggested a matter of this kind, involving policy as well as possible legislative approval, would certainly have to be submitted to the board of trustees. He also wanted to give his approval to the president for about one million for house operation connection with the ship yards.

"I felt that the trustees should pass upon it. Admiral Harris then expressed the opinion that his authority limited and that he would be able to render more service elsewhere. The board of trustees concurred in this judgment, feeling that their duty required careful consideration of projects apart from ship building."

Admiral Harris' resignation, after only two weeks tenure in his new job, set Washington to wondering, but Chairman Hurley and his associates took pains to emphasize that it would

COLLEGE STUDENTS REBEL WHEN ASKED TO SING IN GERMAN

(International News Service) CLEVELAND, DEC. 18.—Following the action of a number of students in refusing to sing a German folk song and tearing up their music, patriotic citizens of Berea, Ohio, today announced their intention of going before the board of trustees of Baldwin-Wallace college there, to lodge a protest against alleged pro-Germanism on the part of certain members of the faculty.

The controversy centers around a protest said to have been made by President A. L. Breslich, against a patriotic address given recently in the college chapel. L. H. Christman, a faculty member, is leading the opposition to Breslich's alleged views.

GEN. GLENN HINTS AT MOVEMENT OF DRAFTEES ABROAD

CAMP SHERMAN, O., DEC. 19.—The United States senate committee's probe into ammunition supplies was echoed here today when Major General Glenn issued an order that the ordnance department be immediately advised of any defects in small arms and ammunition here.

General Glenn directed that reports be made to the adjutant general at Washington and that "if the organization be in the United States" a copy of the report and a sample of the defective ammunition be forwarded to the chief of ordnance at Washington.

That a movement is expected soon was indicated by a provision in General Glenn's order for the submission of a report "if the organization be a part of the expeditionary force."

Cossacks At Rostov Whip Bolsheviki

(International News Service) STOCKHOLM, DEC. 19.—A second defeat for the Bolsheviki forces in Southern Russia and the capture of Rostov by Cossacks were reported in a dispatch from Harbin today.

Rostov is in Ukraine and on Saturday the Bolsheviki war office in Petrograd announced its capture from the Cossacks with the aid of warships from the Black Sea fleet that had gone over to the Bolsheviki cause. The force defeated was at Odessa, also in Ukraine where the Bolsheviki forces were driven off while trying to take over the garrison.

The foregoing dispatch indicates that civil war is still in progress in Southern Russia.

KAISER TAKES HAND IN PEACE DICKERINGS WITH THE BOLSHEVIKI

COPENHAGEN, DEC. 19.—The kaiser is now taking a hand in the so-called peace negotiations between the Bolshevik regime at Petrograd and the Central Powers. This was shown today by the report that the German emperor has made inquiries as to what would befall the former Czar and his family in event peace is concluded. Despite the fact that the German government has formally accused the ex-Czar of bringing on the war by mobilizing the Russian army on the Austro-German frontiers, the report contains a hint that Nicholas and his family may be invited to make their future home in Germany if they are allowed to leave Russia. The Czarina is related to the Kaiser. Dr. Von Kuhlmann, German foreign minister and Count Czernin, Austrian foreign minister, are reported to have reached Brest Litvsk, where the armistice was signed.

Conflicting reports are again being received as to the international situation in Russia. The Bolsheviks are still holding on in Petrograd but fighting between the patriotic Cossacks and Bolshevik forces continues in the

Fulton Looks For A Match With Willard

NEW YORK, DEC. 19.—A battle for the heavyweight championship between Jess Willard and Fred Fulton is looked upon as a certainty by boxing fans here today.

Willard has offered to meet any heavy weight providing the entire gate receipts are turned over to the Red Cross. Jack Curley, the promoter, has offered Fulton $10,000 to go thru with such a bout, saying he is ready to furnish a man who will give the Minnesota plasterer that amount so that he can reach Willard's proposition. Neither man, it is believed, will be able to side step the bout under such conditions and as Fulton is generally recognized as the logical man to meet Willard a battle for the time will give them both a chance to show their patriotism.

Reports brought in by Red Cross solicitors are enthusiastic in the extreme.

They tell of not merely one in a family joining or two, but of fathers and mothers and children, they tell of parents proudly taking our memberships for their boys and girls in order that a white star may go on the Red Cross and that home be stamped as a TRUE-BLUE AMERICAN HOME.

But in spite of all that is tremendously encouraging the fact remains that there are still some men, some women in Coshocton who do not know the Red Cross and for what it stands. They do not realize that it is AN ORGANIZATION DEVOTED TO PRACTICAL SERVICE TO SUFFERING MANKIND; THAT CONGRESS AUTHORIZES IT, THAT PRESIDENT WILSON HEADS IT, THAT THE WAR DEPARTMENT AUDITS ITS ACCOUNTS, THAT PERSHING APPROVES IT—THAT RIGHT NOW IT IS WORKING ALL DAY FOR YOUR ARMY, YOUR NAVY, YOUR ALLIES—YOU. It is all this that the solicitor represents when you are asked for a Red Cross membership; IT IS YOURS FOR $1.

SENATOR HARDING, STATESMAN

If Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, is not careful he will make himself the most useful agent of the people in either branch of Congress. In a public statement on November 18 he made clear that he has grasped an idea which might help him attain such a position. In that statement he dealt upon the need of opening up land to labor.

He finds that there are 500,000,000 acres of idle farm lands in the United States to say nothing of the inadequately used land and he holds that labor should get a chance to cultivate it properly, without paying tribute to speculators. The vacant land he has in mind is not the arid public domain but privately owned land in New England, the Middle States and other old sections.

It would be interesting to learn what method the Senator has in view for bringing the landless man and the landless land together. It is to be hoped that he does not harbor the mistaken idea of establishing a class of small proprietors without providing against concentration of ownership. The lack of such a provision in existing homestead laws is responsible for the growth of landlordism in the western states. The Government encouraged settlers to take quarter sections of free land. The idea was that a class of independent small proprietors would be created, and the United States would become and remain a nation of home owners.

Now it is becoming clear that the homestead law has failed of its purpose. In Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and other states the percentage of tenant farmers is growing. Increase in land values has enabled the original settlers or their sons to move into the cities and live in idleness off the labor of tenants. Land speculation has been encouraged. Young men desiring to become farmers find themselves compelled to pay inflated prices for land. The result is to be seen in farms without farmers and farmers without farms.

Senator Harding will find when he starts out to remedy this state of affairs that to be successful, any plan applied must contain a provision for public appropriation of all values not due to the industry of the settler. A tax on land values if the land is to be privately owned, or payment of ground rent to the Government if the title is to remain with the Federal Government, must be a part of whatever method he may have in view.

Had such a condition been attached to the homestead law, land in the western states would be held now only by those wishing to put it to its most productive use. There would be no land speculators, no idle landlords and no exploited tenants. By taking the rental value of land for public use, improvements and other labor products could be exempted from taxation, and workers would not be penalized, as they are now, for creating wealth.

Success to Senator Harding in his undertaking, together with the hope that he will neglect nothing essential to making his idea work—American Economic League.

BLEAK DECEMBER

BY WALT MASON

December always makes me sad, for then the climate's mostly bad, and if a motoring one goes, he'll freeze his whiskers and his nose. Uncertain is December's mood; her conduct hints that she is stowed. Her changes are a thing of dread; you cannot plan two hours ahead. The sun may rise as bright as brass, and promise putting up much grass. You cry, "Oh, what a lovely day!" I'll get my car and search away, and breathe some crisp refreshing air, which is abundant everywhere. And when you've gone five miles or four, the sky clouds up, you hear a roar, and then a howling one appears, to freeze your sideboards and your ears. Next morning there is snow to burn, it's deep where ever you may turn. That capture in your bosom exerts, "Now, over a sled and strong is calls," for cry, "and cheer and buff man, and we'll go skating here and there." You fix up sled and bells and steel, and start away at blinding speed, and then, there comes a summer that, the blondest day you ever saw. The snow's melted to green food, the sled is stuck in the mud. And what is to be done now, and you are looking it to town, a star comes up with shriek and din, to freeze your handkerchiefs and your chin.

NEW YORK, DEC. 19.—The stars of a world.
Who play a play which
And live immortal.
Stalked out of oblivion
The great audience
Gathered in their seats
Drooping in their seats
Platonic and weary soldier
Were transported

And an Aladdin of the stage
To the misty ages of the past.
There came George Sand
Who loved a la carte
Romantic and rosy
Of a fabulous Paris
There came Terence Heine
Colossus of cynicism

Days of Hattie
There came Alfred de Musset

There came Frederic Chopin
Who played the god
Who struck words
Who, with ivory
There came Franz List
A virtuoso of the keys
A virtuoso of the keys
The phantom idealists
Who choked to death
On the raw meat of reality
There was a hush

Tapped his uncertain way
Gosh! But it was

Police Graft In Chicago Is To Be Exposed

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, DEC. 19.—Further sensational revelations of alleged police graft in Chicago are expected today when Tom Costello, confessed head of the police bribery syndicate, resumes the stand at the trial of Former Chief of Police Charles Healey, Wm. Skidmore and Detective Sergeant Stephen Barry.
Altho he has already unfolded an amazing tale of official corruption Costello's story, according to the state is not half told. Costello recited in detail his alleged payments of graft money to Healey. He declared that within a period of 2 years he collected and paid to Chief Healey more than $12,000 for protection of gambling and vice in Chicago.
Costello's testimony involved scores of officials and operators of resorts. His testimony did not spare himself and he talked freely of his own alleged activities in paying upon keepers of immoral and illegal resorts. Costello pictures himself as the general manager of the graft syndicates operations.

BOTH NATIVE COSHOCTONIANS

The following item appeared in the Warsaw Republican, published at Warsaw, Ill., Wednesday, December 12:

Exactly Like Vene.

S. C. Munhall, of Vene, as he is known to his friends and they are legion, is an old printer and writer, and a fine gentleman with it all. When his neighbor, Mr. Fry, reached his ninety-ninth year last Saturday, Vene, always faithful, wrote him the following pretty letter:

My Dear Mr. Fry:

I am informed that you are celebrating your ninety-ninth natal day, and I must congratulate you. Why? Because we have been friends—good friends—for 52 years; because we have been neighborly neighbors for 49 years; because our birthplace is the same—dear old Coshocton.

Let's shake, by wire-less, again and again.

Ninety years! Twenty years, more than the allotted life of man, including periods of prattling babyhood, innocent childhood, happy boyhood, sterling manhood, devoted husbandhood, loving fatherhood and loved by a neighborhood.

A glorious life record! Let's shake again.

May the evening of your long and useful life be your brightest and happiest days, may you live to celebrate the eighth day of December until you are a centenarian, and may all present on this joyful occasion be there to embrace and congratulate you, is the sincere wish of WENE MUNHALL.

Warsaw, Ill., December 5, 1917.

NORMA TALMADGE

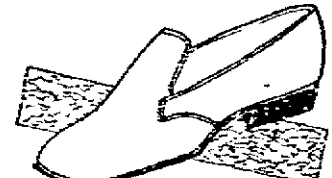

Altho Nora Talmadge is the youngest of all screen stars who have been accorded the honor of being placed at the head of their own companies, her rise to a position among the foremost half dozen of all favorites has been the result of years of steady activity in the motion picture studio.

In comparison with some of the screen stars whose reputations have been made over night, Miss Talmadge, at the age of twenty can already be reckoned a veteran camera artiste. This latest Selznick Pictures star first faced a motion picture camera in the Biograph studio six years ago, and it was her years of varied service in all sorts of minor roles that enabled her, when at last given her real chance, to bloom forth in leading parts equipped with an exceptional technique and fitted to make the most of her opportunity. The result was that within a year from the time this talented young woman played her first leading role, she forced her way firmly into the hearts of millions of screen followers and became, from the producer's point of view, one of the most valuable acquisitions in the profession.

See her in her greatest triumph "Panthor" in seven wonderful reels at the Mystic tonight and Thursday.

Coming Friday and Saturday Charles Ray in his first new Paramount "A Son of His Father."

May Use Convicts to Make War Supplies

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Great Britain and Canada have already employed convict labor to manufacture war supplies. And now Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, proposes that the same thing be done in this country.

His idea is to equip Federal prisons with necessary manufacturing machinery and utilize the prisoners to turn out the finished product. Other non-convict prisoners may participate.

The introduction of the prison labor bill is the result of co-operation of the American Federation of Labor, the Department of Labor, the Department of War and the National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor. "It" is a statement says, "marks the taking of a new trench in the fight against the exploitation of the prisoner and free labor, in addition to freeing his labor for war work."

At its last session Congress appropriated money for shops at Atlanta, Fort Leavenworth and McNeill Island penitentiaries. This development was approved by the officers of the American Federation of Labor, which is now pressing the nation-wide extension of the State use system. If this is done, the Federal Government can increase the nation's productivity, economize for inefficient labor power and benefit the prisoner and the free workman.

The bill authorizes the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy to employ military prisoners in the manufacture of war supplies and in the structure of military road. Army prisoners are already used on road work within national army cantonments. The bill would make possible their use on roads leading to the cantonments.

The Cheney Phonograph Plays All Records Better Than You Have Ever Heard Them Played Before

Let the Cheney solve your Christmas gift problem. Make the whole family happy by providing this splendid gift for them all.

Science and Art have combined to produce this matchless musical instrument.

The Cheney's wonderful tone is a scientific achievement. Entirely new applications of acoustic principles, covered by basic patents, place the Cheney in a class alone.

The exquisite art of Cheney Cabinet Work, in accepted period styles, commands universal admiration.

These instruments embody many refinements and operative conveniences not found on other phonographs.

The Cheney Violin-Shaped Resonator is carved from the same air-dried spruce used in violins. Just as a fine violin improves with age, so does time add to the richness and mellowness of Cheney tone.

Compare the Cheney with other phonographs. You will hear your favorite records played better than you have ever heard them played before.

A moderate payment down will reserve any model for Christmas delivery.

SECURE INFORMATION ON AID FOR SOLDIERS' KIN AT RED CROSS ROOMS

Families or members of families, who are wholly or partially dependent upon men in any branch of the military or naval service are, under act of congress, of October 6, 1917, entitled to certain monthly allowances from the government. The government is not only willing but anxious to furnish their assistance but can not do so until the necessary information is filed with the department at Washington. To facilitate this work the local Red Cross chapter have been designated to assist in gathering this information. Many families no doubt, are ignorant of their rights and responsibilities provided by this recent act of congress and the Coshocton County Chapter of the Red Cross has opened an office at Red Cross headquarters, corner Main and Fifth streets, here Mr. Thomas G. Brown, chairman of the Civilian Relief committee, of the local Red Cross chapter, can be found every day between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock P. M. Here all information will be furnished families, or individuals, coming under the provision of this law. Interested parties are urged to call and file the necessary information that their cases may be properly presented to the department at Washington and the regular monthly allowance, to which they are entitled, assigned them.

Horse Meat Sales

Reported Increasing
(International News Service)
NEW YORK, DEC. 20.—New York butchers today began to awaken to the fact that the threatened introduction of horse meat at low prices had not only become a reality but is promising to get an overwhelming welcome in the poorer quarters of the city. Already the best butchers in localities where the horse meat shops have been established are beginning to feel a falling off in trade, and in one section are charged with showing their resentment by violence.

FACTORY COAL DIVERTED TO OHIO HOMES

WASHINGTON, DEC. 19.—Widespread suffering from fuel famines in many cities and towns today forced the fuel administration to issue sweeping orders for the diversion of coal to householders in preference to industrial concerns. Authorization was given to state administrators in the grip of the cold wave to recognize the priority rights of domestic consumers in the distribution of all available supplies. Householders will be supplied first out of the stocks of coal that may be on hand or in transit, and state administrators are empowered to requisition coal intended for industrial use, if such a step is deemed necessary to prevent distress.

Alarming reports from the middle west and eastern sections of the country poured in upon the administration. Many of these told of pneumonia epidemic starting because of the coal famine. Apparently the coal shortage is most acute in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and New York.

Fuel Administrator Garfield stated today that the railroads are co-operating to the utmost in endeavoring to move the coal offered them for delivery to the sections where the shortage is most felt, but that snowstorms had served greatly to hamper traffic.

Many solid trains of coal from the Kentucky fields destined to Ohio and Michigan points are stalled by snow drifts.

Administrator Garfield stated today that the drastic orders for the diversion of coal from industrial to domestic consumers would remain in force just so long as was necessary to meet the needs of householders. Until now the fuel administration has dodged the proposal to curtail industries.

Heinz Holds His Seat In U.S. Congress

COLUMBUS, DEC. 19.—Congressman Victor Heinz, Cincinnati republican, will continue to hold his seat in congress so far as the Ohio courts are concerned. Heinz is on duty as an officer in the federalized Ohio National Guard at Camp Sheridan, Ala. The state supreme court today decided against David L. Baumgarten, Democrat, who sought to compel the Hamilton county election board to certify to Secretary Fulton the fact that five votes were cast for Baumgarten as a candidate to succeed Heinz. Baumgarten contended that when Heinz joined the guard he lost his seat in congress. Had he won in the supreme court, Baumgarten would have asked Fulton to issue a certificate of election as Heinz successor. According to a dispatch from Washington, South R. Trimble, clerk of the house is credited with stating that Heinz seat is vacant and that he would promptly swear Baumgarten as Heinz successor if Baumgarten presented a certificate of election from Fulton.

Xmas Spirit Wins A Tree For Kiddies

In spite of the fact that it was decided that the annual custom of having Christmas trees in the lower grades of the Coshocton public schools should be abandoned this year, on account of there being so many important demands for money, the first grade pupils at Sycamore building have a fine large Christmas tree standing in one corner of their room. The first grade room at this building is situated so that the children have a view of the T. C. & O. railroad tracks. One morning, everytime they looked out the windows they saw a car of Christmas trees. As soon as they were dismissed for recess, two of the little girls hurried over to the car and asked one of the men there about the trees. The man, as soon as he grasped the situation, told them he has no little girls of his own, so they'd have to be his girls, and gave them one of the trees.
